

Trisha Yearwood

Following three decades in the spotlight, numerous GRAMMY®, CMA® and ACM® Awards, countless multiplatinum certifications, and millions of fans entertained, the same passion still motivates and moves Trisha Yearwood. The singer, actress, author, chef, personality, and entrepreneur derives deep fulfillment from simply walking up to a microphone and pouring her heart out by way of a celebrated powerhouse voice. In 2019, Trisha unveiled her highly anticipated first full-length country record in over a decade, Every Girl. Every Girl: Deluxe includes a new acoustic re-recording of her first album's lead single "She's In Love With The Boy." Trisha made history when the original "She's In Love With The Boy" vaulted to #1 and cemented her as the first female country artist to have a debut single reach the top of the country charts. She made history once again in 2021, when "She's In Love With The Boy" was named "the MOST listened to country song by a Female Artist in the history of Billboard's Country Airplay Charts." Trisha was recently inducted into the Austin City Limits Hall of Fame and celebrated her 25th Anniversary as a member of the Grand Ole Opry.

Trisha remains a timeless entertainer whose influence permeates multiple facets of culture. Beyond fifteen albums, she hosts the EMMY® Award-winning Food Network hit Trisha's Southern Kitchen and her Facebook Live show, T's Coffee Talk. At the forefront of a veritable lifestyle empire, she penned four New York Times-bestselling cookbooks and has designed cookware, furniture, home accessories, and more. She is co-owner of Friends In Low Places, the largest bar and honky-tonk in the Neon Neighborhood of Lower Broadway in Nashville, TN. The venue also features menus created by Trisha. A docuseries following the building of the bar and honky-tonk is airing now on Prime Video.
