

Amanda Fontaine

Executive Director
Mississippi Association of Broadcasters

Amanda Fontaine is a seasoned nonprofit executive with over 20 years of experience in fundraising, leadership, and organizational development. She currently serves as Executive Director of two associations and has held leadership roles in more than 30 organizations. Known for her expertise in leadership training, Amanda has designed and facilitated programs that develop community leaders and drive lasting impact.

She holds an MBA from Delta State University, where she also taught management and marketing, equipping future business leaders with real-world insights. Her dedication to service and excellence has earned her numerous accolades, including Top 50 Women in Business by the Mississippi Business Journal, the Silver Medal Award from the American Advertising Federation, and Woman of Distinction by the Girl Scouts of Greater Mississippi.

Amanda's extensive board service includes roles as Rotary District Governor, AAF District Governor, AFP President, and leadership positions on a wide range of nonprofit and advisory boards in education, healthcare, and youth development.

As a dynamic speaker and trusted consultant, Amanda leads workshops on topics such as time management, fundraising, board development, strategic planning, leadership, and networking. She has coached more than 100 organizations, helping them strengthen their teams, build capacity, and achieve sustainable success.

email: amanda@msbroadcasters.org