

Geniece Granville

Vice President

Davis Broadcasting

Geniece Granville, formally Geniece Davis is the proud daughter of Cheryl and Gregory Davis Sr. Geniece is no stranger to Columbus having been raised in this city and graduating from Hardaway High School in 1996. From there she went on to attain her B. A. in Political Science from Spelman College where she served as the Student Government President, and as a member of the Spelman Board of Trustees. After graduating from college Geniece interned with Congressman John Lewis and from there served as the History Black College and University Director for the Al Gore Presidential Campaign out of Nashville, TN. Geniece Graduated from the University of Georgia Law School in Athens GA. While there she served as a member of the Honor Board and award-winning Mock Trial Team. Geniece graduated with her Jurist Doctorate in 2004 and married her loving husband Donovan Granville Sr. later that year. Together they have two sons, Donovan Granville Jr. and David Granville. After law school, Geniece practiced law for six years with the Fulton County District Attorney's office as a Sr. Assistant District Attorney. While she worked in different divisions of the D.A.'s office, she was most passionate about the work she did in the Crimes Against Women and Children unit. Within Geniece's first two years at the D.A.'s office she was recognized as the young attorney of the year. While at the District Attorney's office, Geniece volunteered with the Legal Lives Program, serving as a mentor to elementary students. Geniece relocated back to Columbus, GA where she served as the Business Manager and In-House Counsel for Davis Broadcasting Inc. and now serves as the Vice President and General Manager for Davis Broadcasting Inc. of Columbus. Donovan and Geniece are proud members of Fourth Street Baptist Church where they currently serve in several ministries.

Currently Geniece Granville currently serves on the Board for the Fourth Street Day Care Academy as secretary; The Columbus, GA Development Authority as secretary; The Columbus, GA Chamber Board, and the Community Foundation Executive Board. Geniece is a member of the Columbus Ga Chapter of the National Alumni Association of Spelman College and The Links Inc., amongst other organizations
